Market Outlook

Equity Outlook & Triggers

Global Update: The U.S. equity market fell in Mar 2026 due to surging oil prices, intensified inflation concerns, and significant geopolitical risk stemming from the West Asia conflict between Iran and US-Israel. The equity barometer S&P 500 index dropped 5.1% in Mar 2026, while the Nasdaq100 fell 4.9% in the same period.

Uncertainty surrounding the conflict stoked a sell-off in UK equity markets, too. The FTSE 100 index dropped below the 10,000-mark, falling 6.7% in Mar 2026.

European markets experienced steeper declines compared to the US and UK due to heightened exposure to the West Asia conflict. The conflict directly disrupted vital oil shipments through the Strait of Hormuz, disproportionately impacting the import-dependent Eurozone economy and its industrial sector. The Stoxx600 index fell 8% in Mar 2026.

China's equity markets saw volatility in Mar 2026 driven by a combination of West Asia conflict, a weak property sector, and continued structural deflationary pressures. The Shanghai Composite index declined 6.5% in Mar 2026.

Japan's Nikkei 225 index experienced a significant downturn in Mar 2026, with losses exceeding 13% for the month—marking its worst monthly performance since the 2008 global financial crisis.

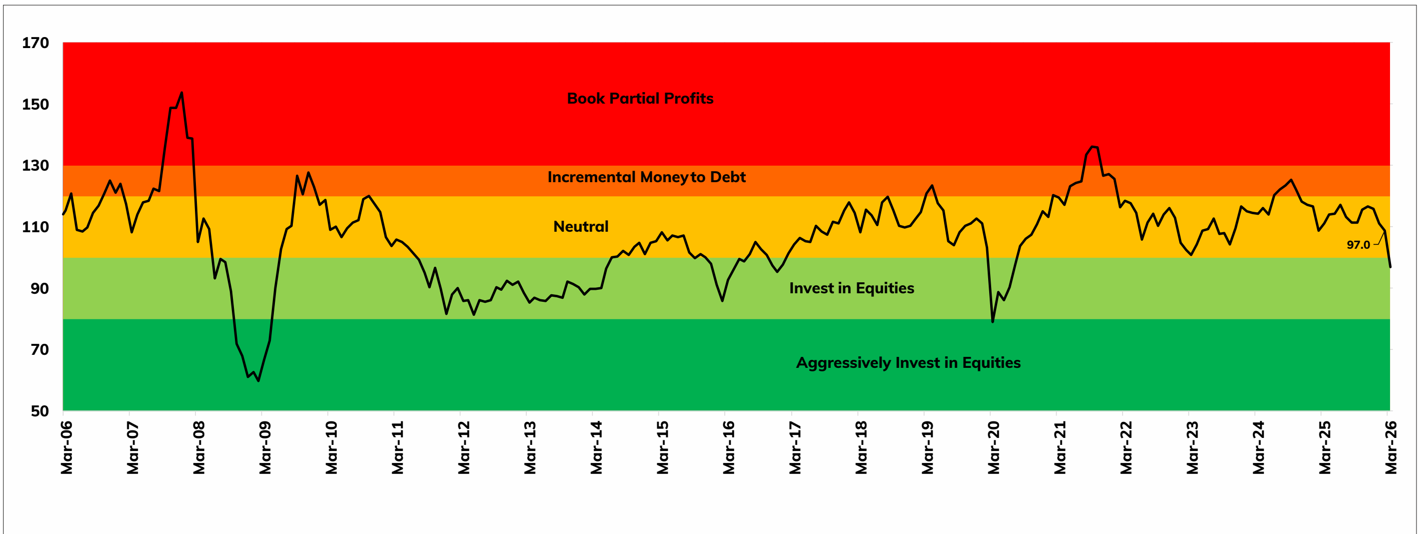
India Update: The Indian equity market declined for the fourth consecutive month as the West Asia conflict stoked a major FPI sell off. FPIs sold Rs.1,17,775 crores in Mar 2026 compared to an inflow of Rs.22,615 crores in Feb 2026. (Source: NSDL)

Market barometers BSE Sensex and NSE Nifty50 slipped 11.5% and 11.3%, respectively, on-month in Mar 2026. Sector-wise, BSE Power (-4.2%), BSE Healthcare (-4.9%) and BSE Teck (-5.8%) were less impacted, whereas, BSE Bankex (-17.0%), BSE Realty (-16.8%) and BSE Auto (-15.5%) were the most impacted. (Source: BSE)

Our view going forward:

- Indian markets saw steep correction during the month as geo-political tensions intensified. Uncertainty pertaining to the conflict remains large.
- On a macro level, fiscal deficit is under control and demand environment is robust. However, probability of inflation inching up is high due to spiraling crude prices. Rupee has depreciated significantly (massive FPI selling – Rs. ~1.8 tn in Mar-2026 + fears of cost-push inflation).
- However, India's long term macro environment continues to remain sound. Rupee depreciation boosts service exports which can cushion India's external balances from supply side shocks.
- India's GDP growth was on track until Q3 of FY26 where it was 7.8%. Estimated growth rate, despite being revised downwards due to West-Asia conflict, will still be relatively higher than other major economies.
- Market valuations have eased from elevated levels post recent corrections. One can consider investing in equities in a staggered manner through SIP/STP in strategies that have the flexibility to maneuver across sectors/ market caps.
- Since market volatility may persist given geo-political tensions, we continue to recommend investing in Hybrid/Asset Allocation strategies.

U.S. – United States of America; US Fed: Federal Reserve of US; FY: Financial year. FI – Foreign Portfolio Investor. AI – Artificial Intelligence.



Equity Valuation index is calculated by assigning equal weights to Price-to-Earnings (PE), Price-to-Book (PB), G-Sec*PE and Market Cap to GDP ratio. G-Sec Government Securities. Market Outlook

By ICICI PRUDENTIAL MUTUAL FUND

Debt Outlook & Triggers

Fixed income markets have seen major jump in yields due to the potential impact of West Asia war on domestic macros and fiscal health. Markets are pricing in multiple rate hikes, which has pushed up yields across duration and credit ratings.

While we cannot forecast the length of the war, we believe that hiking rates is not required. This is because the inflation problem is supply-side driven, and high prices may itself impact growth and demand. Also, inflation has been below target for some time now, and thus, a rise in inflation may not necessarily be alarming. Therefore, we think that the scope for rate hikes is low.

On yield movement, we think that much of the uncertainty is already priced in current yields. Hence, we consider the current scenario as a potential opportunity to invest in accrual products. Within accruals, we recommend corporate bonds in the 1- to 3-year duration range. Hence, we recommend products like short term, corporate bond and banking & PSU debt to capture the short-end of the curve.

Market Activity

The 10-year Indian benchmark bond yield jumped 36 bps during the month due to impact on macros and fiscal health amid the West Asia conflict. Yields settled at 7.02% on Mar 30, 2026 against 6.66% on Feb 27, 2026.

Liquidity conditions turned into surplus throughout the month on account of various liquidity injection measures taken by the RBI.

The 91-day T-bill yield rose 11 bps on-month to 5.40% whereas the 182-day T-bill rose 10 bps to 5.51%. (Source: CCIL) bps – basis points; T-bill – Treasury Bill; RBI – The Reserve Bank of India; MPC – Monetary policy committee; SDL – State Development Loans. GST – Goods and services tax.

Data as on March 31, 2026. Debt Valuation Index considers WPI, CPI, Sensex returns, Gold returns and Real estate returns over G-Sec yield, Current Account Balance, Fiscal Balance, Credit Growth and Crude Oil Movement and any other factor which the AMC may add / delete from time to time for calculation.
